v.

FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION,

Defendant.

Plaintiff has moved to dismiss voluntarily its application for an injunction setting aside, limiting, or suspending the enforcement operation or effectiveness of an order entered by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Also, it has requested that the file kept for record purposes by the Clerk of Court remain sealed and not be made available to the public.

IT IS ORDERED that both the motion for voluntary dismissal and the request for sealing of the record are GRANTED. With the dismissal of the case, public interest in the subject matter of the case file is minimal and is outweighed by the plaintiff's interest in keeping the information therein confidential.
